

Call for Student Representative Nominations to the Talloires Network Steering Committee

The Talloires Network (TN) is grateful to its Steering Committee — a group of 14 leaders from around the world who advise the TN in advancing its mission. The Committee recognizes student leaders as an integral part of this group. As higher education stakeholders, they provide perspectives that are crucial to strengthening the social responsibilities of higher education institutions. As young leaders, they embody higher education's potential to enhance human dignity and wellbeing and improve social harmony and stability.

The Talloires Network seeks two (2) outstanding student leaders to serve as a representative to its Steering Committee for a 2-year term, commencing June 2019. As a representative, the student will collaborate with university leaders to support the continued development of the Network. Student representatives will advise on strategic decisions, serve as TN ambassadors, and participate in fundraising efforts, with a focus on elevating the student voice in these activities.

Candidates should demonstrate:

- Ability to contribute to TN activities and programs in the future
- Keen interest in higher education as a means for social change
- Community engagement experience
- Strong leadership and communication skills
- English language mastery
- Diversity*

*The Talloires Network considers gender balance, geographic representation, institution type, field of study, degree program, when selecting Steering Committee student representatives.

Preference will be given to students with at least one year of enrollment remaining.

Nominations should be submitted to talloiresnetwork@tufts.edu and should include the student's name, home university, contact information and a brief biography, resume or CV.

Nominations are due 28 February 2019
