

COV-AID STUDENT ENGAGEMENT AWARD:

- My name is Phionah, a Ugandan student at LivingStone International University. I'm in fourth year pursuing a bachelor's degree in Media Technology. I'm the current Vice Guild President as well the Chairperson Civic Engagement Activities at my Varsity.

COV-AID STUDENT ENGAGEMENT AWARD:

Community engagement work I was doing

✓ I was teaching literacy at a community school near campus. The school's name is His Farm International.

Challenge: I can't keep in touch the pupils I was helping anymore due to the overwhelming sophistication problems most homes in Uganda are facing.

COV-AID STUDENT ENGAGEMENT AWARD:

In addition to the above information, I'm currently back home in my village doing other civic engagement activities like:

- ◆ Receiving aid from the wealthy and helping out the poor and the vulnerable.
- ◆ Supplying a full curriculum of learning materials to over 50 households in my local community.

Challenge: The demand for food and financial aid within needy homes is high yet the

COV-AID STUDENT ENGAGEMENT AWARD:

How the award would be helpful

I would majorly embark on doing the following:

- ✓ Maximise on the surplus for food by stocking more of it in my stores.
- ✓ Donate 10% of the fund to my local council to help improve on the terms of service delivery in my village
- ✓ Purchase new books for my home library
- ✓ Donate 20% of the fund to the school I was teaching at