

INSERTION INTO SOCIETY FOR REFUGEES, EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS AND DEMOCRACY

COMMUNITY-CAMPUS EVENT PLAN RESULTS REPORT
JUNE 14, 2023

Summary

CONFERENCE REPORT

On Wednesday, June 14, a plenary session was held with attendees from different countries. Among the main ones, we did an exchange of knowledge between Mexico and Spain. Miriam Salvador, director of the Law Program at the Camilo Jose Cela University, Carlotta Tovar, director of the Camilo José Cela Foundation, Valeria Peña tiktokker and defender of rights and international activist, and Murtazar Haidari, a refugee in Spain, they participated as speakers. We met in a plenary session that lasted one hour to discuss the role of Afghan women, the opportunities, and why it is important in society to raise awareness of the situation in which these women find themselves due to the Taliban regime.

Certificate

CERTIFICATE OF PARTICIPATION

Students from the Camilo José Cela University in Spain and the Tecnológico de Monterrey in Mexico attended the conference. We had the participation of 12 people in the event and at the end, we raised awareness of the need for civil society to unite to help refugees who arrive in our country. Finally, the YUFE program was presented, which is a call to action for university students to get involved and this movement from student to student be transformative. At the end of the meeting, each participant was sent a certificate that endorses their attendance and cooperation.

Signed agreements and results

RESULTS

As a result of this first online session, people who attended promised to take training to be able to help refugee women in their universities. Also, some speakers decided to join the YUFE movement. We created the first agenda of interested contacts between Spain and Mexico.

SIGNED AGREEMENTS

- Creation of training that empowers society to help refugee people in a legal and cultural way.
- share educational opportunities and connect with civil associations that allow the mobility of refugees throughout the world.
