

MacJannet Prize for Global Citizenship
Ceremony Weekend
September 12-16, 2010
Talloires, France

Detailed Agenda:

(All time frames are approximate and subject to change)

Sunday 12 September 2010

Program participants arrive in Geneva. Shuttles will bring participants from Geneva to Talloires. Many participants will be coming from quite a distance so there will be no firm commitments on this day.

Arrivals – free afternoon to settle in. When they check into their hotel, participants will be given a folder with information about Talloires and the upcoming events.

19:00: Dinner – Le Lac Hotel, participants and Talloires Network staff

Monday 13 September 2010

Breakfast at hotel at your convenience. Please be at the Priory ready to begin by 10:00.

10:00 – Brief TN welcoming remarks, review plans for day, followed by personal and program introductions by each participant

- Each program’s representatives will have 8-10 minutes to introduce themselves and their program.

11:30 – Coffee Break

11:45 – Session 1 – Fundraising/grantseeking facilitated by Rob Hollister

12:45 – Lunch Buffet at the Tufts European Center

13:45 – Session 2 – Keys to Sustainability facilitated by Fred Waldstein

15:00 – Meeting ends. Short break for participants

15:45 – Meet at the Embarcadero to catch the for boat to Annecy

19:00 – Group dinner in Annecy

Tuesday 14 September 2010

This will be a very full working day.

Breakfast at hotel at your convenience. Please be at the Priory ready to begin by 9:00.

09:00 – Session 1 – University policies on Civic Engagement, facilitated by Susan Stroud

10:30 – Coffee Break

10:45 – Session 2 – Global Learning and Civic Responsibility: Bringing it to Life within a Domestic Context, facilitated by Amy Spring and Jon Hurst

12:30 – Lunch Buffet at the Tufts European Center

13:30 – Session 3 – Discussion around building the capacities of students to reflect on their learning about implications for their role as future citizens, facilitated by Judy Favish

15:00 – Coffee Break

15:15 – Session 4 – Networking time

16:30 – Meeting ends; participants have free time

19:00 – Group dinner in Talloires

Wednesday 15 September 2010

Working period/wrapping up, reception with MacJannet Foundation members, and Award ceremony. President Larry Bacow will participate.

Breakfast at hotel at your convenience. Please be at the Priory ready to begin by 9:00.

09:00 – Session 1 – Working with students improving student learning outcomes, etc., facilitated by Seth Pollack

10:30 – Coffee Break

10:45 – Session 2 – Communications/messaging facilitated by Rob Hollister

12:30 – Lunch

13:30 – Closing Session

14:30 – Meet and greet (MacJannet Foundation members and Prize winners), MacJannet Hall

- MacJannet Foundation – Introduce the Board, the Foundation's background
- Brief presentations by the winners (2-3 min. each)
- Informal discussion

16:00 – Free time before ceremony

18:00 – 19:30 – Awards Ceremony (MacJannet Hall), Tufts European Center

- Rob Hollister will begin with an introduction of the Prize origin (5 minutes)
 - Rob Hollister will also serve as MC, introducing each speaker as outlined below
- Rob H introduces Larry Bacow, who speaks for 10 minutes
- Background on MacJannet Foundation and their hopes for the Prize: Tony Cook (10 min)
- Presentation of awards and acceptance speeches¹
 - Wartburg, USA (Third Place Winner)
 - HKU, Hong Kong (Third Place Winner)
 - PSU, USA (Third Place Winner)
 - UCT, South Africa (Third Place Winner)
 - PUJ, Colombia (Third Place Winner)
 - UMaT, Ghana (Second Place Winner)
 - NUIG, Ireland (Second Place Winner)
 - PUC, Chile (First Place Winner)
- Rob H closes the ceremony
- Slideshow of pictures taken during meeting

20:00 – Group Celebratory dinner in Talloires at La Villa des Fleurs

Thursday 16 September 2010

Participants will be provided with shuttles to the Geneva airport for their Departures

¹ Participants will be asked to give 3-5 min acceptance speeches focused on the larger purpose of their work and values of their Universities. Rob Hollister will read the names; awards will be presented jointly by Larry Bacow, Susan Stroud, and Tony Cook