The Talloires Network
Evolution & Strategic Direction

April 2018
Lorlene Hoyt, Executive Director, Talloires Network
Anthony P. Monaco, Steering Committee Chair, Talloires Network
Alan Solomont, Dean, Tisch College of Civic Life
Mission

- The Talloires Network is an independent international association of institutions committed to strengthening the civic roles and social responsibilities of higher education.

Vision

- The Network envisions universities around the world as dynamic forces in their societies, incorporating civic engagement into their research and teaching. We believe that universities have a responsibility to develop the next generation of active citizens who will address community challenges around the world.
History

• Convened in 2005 at the Tufts European Center in Talloires, France by then Tufts University President Lawrence S. Bacow
• Produced the Talloires Declaration on the Civic Roles and Social Responsibilities of Higher Education
• Signed by 29 university leaders in 23 countries
• Co-founded by Rob Hollister, Dean, Tisch College, and Susan Stroud, Executive Director, Innovations in Civic Participation

• Today there are 380 signatory members in 77 countries
Chronology

- 2005 Founding and signing of the Talloires Declaration
- 2005-2011 Lawrence S. Bacow serves as Steering Committee Chair

- 2011 Global conference in Madrid, Spain
- 2011-2014 Mark Gearan serves as Steering Committee Chair

- 2014 Anthony P. Monaco begins service as Steering Committee Chair
- 2014 Global conference in Cape Town, South Africa

- 2017 Global conference in Veracruz, Mexico
- 2017 Talloires Network institutes dues policy in order to achieve sustainability
Governance

• Governed by an elected Steering Committee serving 3-year terms

• 10 heads of universities, 3 heads of national or regional networks, and 2 student representatives (representing 12 countries on 6 continents)

• Chaired by Anthony P. Monaco, President of Tufts University

Cheryl de la Rey, University of Pretoria, South Africa, Vice Chair
Haifa Jamal Al-Lail, Effat University, Saudi Arabia
Nisar Ahmed Siddiqui, Sukkur IBA University, Pakistan
Mabel O. Imbuga, Jomo Kenyatta University, Kenya
Sara Ladrón de Guevara, Universidad Veracruzana, Mexico
Lorraine McIlrath, National University of Ireland, Galway, Ireland
Santa Ono, University of British Columbia, Canada
Andrew Petter, Simon Fraser University, Canada
Maria Nieves Tapia, Latin American Center for Service-Learning, Argentina
Rajesh Tandon, Society for Participatory Research in Asia, India
Andrew Vann, Charles Sturt University, Australia
Adam Weinberg, Denison University, USA
Abigail Gómez, Universidad Veracruzana, Mexico (student)
Mapendo Mindje, University of Rwanda, Rwanda (student)
The Talloires Network is administered by a secretariat, which is based at the Jonathan M. Tisch College of Civic Life.

The Talloires Network and Tisch College share the belief that universities have a responsibility to develop the next generation of active citizens who will address the tremendous challenges facing our communities, our nations and the world.
Types of Membership

• Signatory Membership signals an institutional commitment to the ideals of university civic engagement and social responsibility to address pressing problems

  Requires a letter of commitment to the Talloires Declaration signed by the university president, vice-chancellor, or rector

• Engaged Membership is a commitment to supporting TN operations, programs, and research by contributing annual dues based on the host country’s Human Development Index rating, according to the United Nations Development Program

  Requires Signatory Membership plus annual dues payment
Platform: Action Research

• The Network contributes to the global university civic engagement movement by way of inquiry and action

• The Network advocates integration of Research, Education and Practice within institutions of higher education

• The Network recognizes the historical dominance of the Global North and facilitates South-North dialogue and exchange
Guiding Values for Higher Education: Access, Leadership, and Livelihoods

The Network focuses its research, education, and practice on three interrelated human rights and corresponding responsibilities:

1) The right to education; the responsibility of higher education to be socially inclusive and to promote quality education for all, including people from disenfranchised and indigenous communities

2) The right to leadership opportunities and economic mobility; the responsibility of higher education to create prosperous communities and societies

3) The right to a livelihood; the responsibility of higher education to prepare people for employment and entrepreneurship, and to contribute to local development
Key Assets

- Geographic breadth and diversity of membership
- Influence as a “network of university networks”
- Successful programs and activities
- Leadership from engaged members
- Partnerships with foundations
- Research publications (in the field)
- Repository of global data on university civic engagement programs
- SC members’ stature and leadership
- Reach of newsletter and social media
Successful Programs and Activities

- University entrepreneurship education programs
- International prize for global citizenship
- International student exchange programs
- Faculty development programs
- Writing and research collaborations
- Graduate research seminars
- International workshops, webinars, and conferences
- Sharing best practices
- Creation of national and regional networks
Research Platform: Youth Economic Participation Initiative (YEPI)

- $5.9 million
- 8 grants
- 14 countries
- 3.5 years
- 214 group businesses created
- 1,932 participants transitioned into a job
- 678 graduates are self-employed
- 18 patents developed
Research Publications
Geographic Breadth and Diversity of Membership

- 380 Signatory Members in 77 Countries
Financial Support from Engaged Members

- Tiered membership dues structure
- Change in business model to ensure sustainability

Tier 1
$7,500

Tier 2
$5,000

Tier 3
$2,500

Tier 4
$500
Partnerships with Supporters and Foundations

- MacJannet Foundation
- Kettering Foundation
- Santander Universities
- Engaged Members
- Tufts University and Tisch College
- Mastercard Foundation
- Pearson Foundation
- Rockefeller Foundation
- Walmart Foundation
- New Eurasia Foundation
- Ishyama Foundation
- Carnegie Corporation of New York
Strategic Priorities

• Rebranding – new name and logo
• Carnegie Community Engagement International Classification pilot
• Expand research platform with new collaborations
• TNLC 2020 – next Talloires Network Leaders Conference

Spain, 2011

South Africa, 2014

Mexico, 2017
Strategic Direction: An Inflection Point

- New and renewed leadership on the Steering Committee
- New Executive Director
- New financial model of shared ownership in the Network
- New relationships, ideas, and momentum from the successful conference in Xalapa, Mexico
- New and major publications, contributing to knowledge in the field
- New opportunities for collaboration with supporters
- New trends in higher education that align with Network mission and vision
- New home at Tisch College
Thank You

TalloiresNet

The Talloires Network

Http://talloiresnetwork.tufts.edu

The Talloires Network